

Confidentiality and Compliance Agreement for Thesis Examiners for Higher Degree by Research Students

1.0 Confidentiality

- 1.1 You have been appointed as an examiner of a research student thesis for Curtin University (Curtin) and as such you may receive and acquire confidential information that is the property of Curtin.
- 1.2 As a thesis examiner you are required to take all reasonable steps to keep confidential all information that is disclosed to or obtained by you as a result of or during the course of the examination process with Curtin.

2.0 Compliance

- 2.1 You are requested to examine the thesis within six weeks of receipt and to provide an independent written report on the thesis.
- 2.2 Should you make a recommendation for re-examination of the thesis then you may be required to conduct such a re-examination.

3.0 Return of Property after examination

Upon completion of your examination, you are required to deliver to Curtin any copies of theses and any associated documents or artefacts that belong to Curtin which may then be in your possession.

I undertake to comply with the above obligations and conditions as required by Curtin University and as stated above to protect the University's confidential information and all relevant compliance requirements.
